PARKLAND RISING

Tuesday, July 2, 2013

6:00 pm – 7:00 pm

3201 Greenwood Ave. (Vacant Building)

Join Center for Neighborhoods; Ramona Dallum Lindsey, Artist; Councilwoman Attica Scott (Metro Council District 1); and our community partners as we celebrate the transformation of a vacant building into a symbol of hope, renewal, and rebirth.

Center For Neighborhoods

Producing Art In Neighborhoods Together brings neighborhoods and artists together to create site-specific public art projects in neighborhoods throughout the Louisville Metro Area. PAINT embraces a neighborhood-based, grassroots approach to the creation of new public artwork involving broad community participation. Parkland Rising was facilitated by Center for Neighborhoods through a Metro External Agency Fund Grant.
